

Our Firm Profile

In our Country, LatinCo El Salvador Ltda. de C.V. has gain a great credibility and reputation trough the experience of 45 years in this professional feel, in the Salvadorian territory

Period in which we provide our services to a great variably of clients that represent almost all sectors of our economy. Which are institution of services, financial, Industry, commercial and none profit institution, and projects whit founds of international entities

Our services are rule by the following bases:

Integrity -----→

we execute personal relation with our clients.

Independent-----→

Is a warranty based on the standard of etic and quality.

Personal Care. ----→

The moment we provide or service and the management of informatics which we access and to keep record.

Experience: -----→

Our entity and the personal that we appoint have the experience in different sectors.

Support: -----→

The training and knowledge of specialize personal through the management of our projects in El Salvador with the tools and technics provide by Nexia International.

Background of the Firm

Nexia International was created in 1971 by the two most powerful firms in New York and London ranking the firm in the 10 first firm World Wide whit 349 office in 92 Countries and the first 8 firms in Latin American.

Is one of the most important firms of Independent Accounting which got together to propose Accounting, tax and private service and to help clients and guide them through a more Global business and the environment the clients can trust. We are small enough to offer our skills with the true knowledge and we are big enough to offer a reach global presence.

Local experience global experience and connexion in all the places around the world.

Vision declaration:

To have recognition in local markets and international, we achive through our comment with a common of values.

Our Clients:

To propose a global advisement with local specialist.

To guaranty the excellence of our service.

To deliver of solution through partners

Our members:

To create connection between company and the best tecnicos and practice to create an environment in which professional with develop.

Our Group of interest

To performance in a transparent in an etic way. To play an important role in our local communities an impact in our environment.

Our Professional Services

Our firm offer a multiple service to corporation which are:

Financial advice and audit

Accounting, tax service and Personal tax and orporate

International business services and transfer pricing

Audit and financial advisement:

- Audit of financial statements according with international audit rules.
- Audit of government programs according to government audit
- Audit administration+
- Audit of international organizations
- Limited review of specific areas
- Studies quantification of financial information for financial propose
- Advisement of acquisition and function reorganize and liquidation of corporation
- Analysis of efficient operation.
- Audit for the acquisition of share. Due diligence.
- lifting inventory of fixed assets
- Advisement of legal aspect of government entities.
- Corporation evaluation

Outsourcing

Our department of management and consulting with specialist in different tecnics and professional discipline, give assistances for the business manager for the achievements of their objectives with the best of affectivity.

The service of our consulting management department covers the mayor function of business deals, general management legal representation, to hire personal for financial and budget.

Audit advisement and consulting legal tax aspect.

Our personal in change of tax works in harmony with the audit professional develop suggestion and plans to minimize the impositive obligations of our clients, national and international our main service are:

- Fiscal audit
- Fiscal revision of fulfillment
- Receive of legal fulfillment (mercantile, labor)
- Occupational risk on security aspects
- Vat advisement in the area related to company, corporation, and special agreement, for national and forcing investment deduction related taxes an other interest for tax payers.
- Litigation in tax interest on judicial and administrative. (TAIAO)
- Transfer prices
- Fulfilment and supervision of the law agent money laundry and ASSETS.
- Review of specific procedies for the prevention of money laundry of assets and the official activities of fulfillment.

Technology information

Support on a group of knowledge of computer knowledge and audit and accountancy. The security, Quality of the computer knowledge of our clients and the rescindable security of the information process and stored for the finality to determinate and judgment. Verifiable and opinion for the adequate internal computer knowledge and the most integrity information of data with efficiency that have been use and management and all the technology resources of technology. Computer knowledge in change of the management include the human factor.

Software develop related to costs and accounts receivable inventories and suppliers

Conversion service a NIIF'S and financial evaluation.

Actually in the business world moves in a global environment, where every day takes the financial information that helps as an instrument in taking decision.

Implementation of process of international standards of account NIIF'S that aloud to present financial information accountable which respond International criteria and general acceptance that help the analysis for local investment and foreign clients and supplies companies have to proceed as possible a reconvert their financial information and presentation evaluation and stablish accountancy of financial information. We know that our future clients are very interested in the implementation of this standards financial employees and accounting archive yours the technical – presential which allowed them to take the future financial decision accordance to the establish standard.

Professional

In our firm our tax partner and transfer price Carlos Saúl López Díaz Mejía have wrote a book call "The institution of transfer prices in the Salvadorian tax code"

For this service we have a strategic alliance with Consulting Group EFE.

Training

Our entity develop like a leader company of training in the areas of audit, tax, accounting rules, money laundry, training public to the measure of our clients.

Our Executive team to serve you

Our multi-disciplinary team of work have an adequate training for the fulfillment at our liabilities to make sure the participation of our specialist that request for integral analysis of the problems. The effective communication with our partners and the management to approach the issue related with our professional services and the issue attention of their problems to offer alternatives for the solutions. That make the success of our firm.

Our Executive personal have the direct responsibility for the realization of the jobs to comply our clients expectative.

Why LatinCo?

LatinCo, is a global firm with the experience in Audit, Financial, Tax and the experience form more than 45 years in El Salvador serving all sectors.

